ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No. Nature of Noncompliance

1. Shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime:

On January 21, 2012, Adam Woodard was arrested for Driving Under the Influence (DUI) in Hendersonville, Tennessee, by the Sumner County Sheriff's Department. He was found not guilty on the charge of Driving Under the Influence on November 20, 2012. He was found guilty of Implied Consent and his license to drive was revoked for 1 year on this date.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Mr. Woodard began supervised release on February 22, 2010. He is scheduled to terminate supervised release on February 21, 2013. He was referred for substance abuse treatment when he began supervised release and successfully completed treatment on June 17, 2011.

The Court was notified on February 3, 2012, that Mr. Woodard had been arrested and charged with Driving Under the Influence. The Court was informed that notification would be made when a disposition occurred for the charges.

Mr. Woodard has been most recently employed with 31-W Installation. He is currently recovering from back surgery. He has been advised to be watchful of addictive symptoms while recovering from his back surgery, as he is being prescribed pain medication during the recovery. Mr. Woodard currently resides in White House, Tennessee, with his mother and stepfather, who are assisting him while he recovers from surgery.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is recommended that Mr. Woodard be continued on supervised release with no further action at this time.

The U. S. Attorney's Office agrees with the probation officer's recommendation.

Approved:
Britton Shelton
Supervisory U.S. Probation Officer
